- Yarn Type: Opt for soft, child-friendly yarns like cotton, acrylic, or a blend, ensuring they meet safety standards. Avoid using yarns that shed excessively or contain potentially irritating dyes.
- Yarn Weight: The yarn weight will influence the rug's overall texture and thickness. Heavier yarns create a denser, more durable rug, suitable for high-traffic areas.
- Color Palette: Choose colors that are visually appealing to your child and complement the room's décor. Bright and cheerful colors are generally preferred for children's spaces.
- Design Complexity: Select a pattern that aligns with your crochet skill level. Beginners might want to start with simpler designs, while more experienced crocheters can explore more intricate patterns.
