The Ayurvedic Foundation of Radiant Skin

Ayurveda proposes that beauty stems from within, a manifestation of well-regulated doshas – Vata, Pitta, and Kapha. These three life forces govern the performance of the body and soul. Imbalances in these doshas can show as skin ailments, ranging from dryness and breakouts to irritation. Raichur's expertise lies in pinpointing these imbalances and developing personalized regimens to reestablish them.

This includes more than just topical applications. Ayurveda highlights the interconnection between diet, lifestyle, and skin health. For instance, an individual with a Vata imbalance (characterized by thinness and unease) might benefit from warming oils, moisturizing creams, and a diet rich in wholesome foods.
