Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Q1: What if I'm struggling with the present simple versus present continuous?

A1: The key difference lies in the type of action. Present simple describes habitual actions (things you do regularly) or general truths ("I eat breakfast every day," "The sun rises in the east"). Present continuous describes actions happening now or around now ("I am eating breakfast now," "She is studying for her exam"). Focus on the time element of the action to distinguish between the two. Practice creating your own sentences using both tenses.
